Sanyog Gupta Voyages

Luxury Destination Management Company

As we have evolved as a company, we have come to realise that our love lies not in booking tour packages, but in showcasing the unique experiences across the nations we serve. We realised that there are many secret corners of our world, rare moments, mysteries and stories.

Our company owned by a family, but run professionally. We have hierarchical systems which are driven by our core family values. We have come to understand we do not want to be the largest company globally. We have never tried to be the richest or the most influential. I say, we just want to be the bestest in what we do.

We are a family tradition for over three decades that have been highlighting this part of the planet. All over Indian sub-continent, we have grown to become a popular, valued and autonomous DMC providing the finest cultural experiences, personal immersions and natural wonders. We are here to build stories for our clients, tales of love, of wonderful excitement. We are proud of our past and its legacy.

NORTHERN ISRAEL

BEYOND NATURE, BEYOND HISTORY, BEYOND EXCITEMENT - ISRAEL'S GREAT BEYOND

REMINISCENT OF TUSCANY IN ITS BEAUTY AND SERENITY, NORTHERN ISRAEL IS PROBABLY ITS BEST KEPT SECRET AND A DREAM DESTINATION FOR TRAVEL ENTHUSIASTS EVERYWHERE.

The North of Israel is famous for its vast green landscapes with rolling hills and valleys, quaint small towns, historic sites and boutique vineyards and wineries that offer romantic and scenic tours.

The Galilee is also renowned as the cradle of Christianity, home to epic sites such as Nazareth and the Sea of Galilee.

At the same time, excitement is everywhere in the form of adrenaline - packed activities such as white water rafting, extreme hiking trails, mountain climbing and rappelling and even skiing and snowboarding.

So come and visit the stunning North of Israel. From the colourful city of Haifa by the sea, the world famous Sea of Galilee to the majestic Jordan River and beautiful vistas of the Golan Heights, this area is awash with beauty, history, adventure and hidden gems simply waiting to be discovered.

THE NEGEV

ISRAEL'S MAJESTIC DESERT - WHERE ADVENTURE AND INSPIRATION AWAIT

An ideal destination for travellers who love adventure in the great outdoors, the south of Israel is sparsely populated, but packed with fascinating sites and activities.

With amazing natural wonders and beauty, the south boasts magnificent views that are guaranteed to take your breath away, from sunrise to sunset.

A desert but definitely not deserted, there is so much to see and do here - there are many extraordinary geological marvels, significant historic landmarks and wonderful nature reserves where you can go hiking, cycling and camel riding or enjoy adrenaline charged safari rides in the desert.

Simply put, this majestic southern region is one of the country's greatest assets and an absolute must on the itinerary.

Frequently Asked Questions

1. VISA and TRAVELING TO AND FROM ISRAEL

Do I need a visa to travel to Israel?

All visitors to Israel must hold a passport that is valid for at least six months from the date they are departing the country. People with no nationality must hold a valid laissez passer, as well as a visa back to the country that issued it.

Visitors are entitled to remain in Israel up to three months from the date of their arrival, in accordance with the conditions of the visa issued to them. The State of Israel does not require a US or European passport holder to apply for a visa and also some other nationalities. Check before you apply if you hold other nationality.

Can I choose not to have an Israel stamp in my passport in case I travel to some countries that don't have diplomatic relations Israel?

Travellers mainly concerned with travelling to Gulf countries so we can inform that there is no issue with having an Israeli visa in your passport and travelling to Gulf countries and others.

In general, Entry / Exit is no longer stamped on travellers' passports. Entry / Exit slips are provided at Immigration after the traveller's passport has been scanned. The slips must be retained until your final departure from Israel.

Can I combine visits to Jordan/Egypt with my visit to Israel?

Absolutely, many visitors to Israel take a day tour to Petra in Jordan. You can fly between Tel Aviv and Amman, or travel overland through a number of border crossings. (You should check with the Jordan tourist offices if you need to obtain a visa before you leave home.) same for Egypt.

2. SAFETY

Is it safe to travel to Israel?

Israel is an extremely safe country to visit and tour. Over six million tourists visit Israel every year and all returned home again safe and sound. We would not encourage tourists to come if we felt they would be in the slightest danger.

Are tourists allowed to enter areas outside of the Israeli responsibility (Palestinian areas)?

Crossing from Jerusalem to Bethlehem is direct, easy and no prior authorisation is required.

Hundreds of tourists make the crossing in both directions every day.

As always, it's wise to check on the political situation before entering the Palestinian Authority.

Please note to take your passport with you, you will need to present it to re-enter Israeli-controlled territory.

If you will be driving, it is recommended to double check your car rental insurance. If your visit in the Palestinian Authority isn't covered, you might prefer to hire a driver or visit with a tour group.

3. HEALTH

Do I need to receive any special vaccination before my trip to Israel?

Not at all. Israel is an entirely western country with an advanced level of hygiene, health care, diagnosis and medicine that is the envy of much of the world and on a par with the best of North America and Western Europe.

Can you drink tap water in Israel?

Absolutely, tap water in Israel is safe, but, you will also find bottled mineral water everywhere.

(It's important to make sure you drink a lot, especially if you are walking, hiking or exercising during hot weather.)

5. GETTING THERE

Which airlines fly to Israel?

More than 80 airlines operate flights to Israel's Ben Gurion International Airport from all over the world (known simply as Tel Aviv or TLV).

6. TRANSPORTATION

What are the transportation options from the airport?

Most visitors arrive at Ben Gurion International Airport (TLV) located 30-minutes from the heart of Tel Aviv, 45 minutes from Jerusalem. If you are arriving without prior land arrangements, there are cabs at the airport, bus services – and trains are available from the airport station (take the airport elevator to the lowest level) to Jerusalem, Tel Aviv, Netanya and Haifa.

How do I get around?

Israel has a sophisticated system of highways, buses, trains and domestic flights.

Buses – The most popular form of transportation in Israel, you can buy tickets at any city's central bus station or from the driver. Please note that most buses don't operate in Israel on Saturdays (Shabbat).

Train – The Israel Railways is an affordable easy way to travel between major cities in Israel. Please note that the trains don't operate in Israel on Saturdays (Shabbat).

Private Taxi – a more expensive option, taxis can be flagged down or ordered by phone almost anywhere, and they'll take you around town or between cities.

Rent a car – International car rental chains have offices in Israel, and there are multiple Israel-based car rental companies. you can rent a car in all of Israel's major cities and at Ben Gurion Airport in Tel Aviv. It's recommended to reserve a car before you arrive. Driving in Israel is on the right-hand side of the road, and most signage is written in Hebrew, English and Arabic.

 Don't use a hand-held phone while driving: it's against the law.*

What are the distances between major cities?

Tel Aviv to Jerusalem	37 miles, 50 minutes
Tel Aviv to Tiberias/Galilee	81 miles, 100 minutes
Tel Aviv to Masada	63 miles, 90 minutes
Tel Aviv to Haifa	90 miles, 70 minutes
Jerusalem to Tiberias	109 miles, 120 minutes
Jerusalem to Masada	56 miles, 90 minutes

Where can I find information about the accessibility?

Considerable efforts and resources have been invested in Israel to enable disabled persons to access any destination and to receive service equal to that received by the rest of the public.

7. ELECTRICITY

Will I need an adapter for my appliances in Israel?

The electric current in Israel is 220 volts, C, single phase, 50 Hertz. Most Israeli sockets are three-pronged but most also accept two-pronged plugs. Visitors who will use shavers, traveling irons and other small appliances may need transformers/adaptor plugs. If your appliance does not work on 220 volts, you will need an adaptor.

9. WEATHER

What is the weather like in Israel, when is the best time to visit?

Israel is a year round destination that enjoys long, warm, dry summers and generally mild winters with somewhat drier, cooler weather in hilly regions, such as Jerusalem and Safed. Temperatures can vary widely so just pack for the "right" weather and you'll be fine.

What kind of clothing should I pack?

In Summer, lightweight T-shirts, sleeveless shirts, shorts, and a bathing suit are recommended. Pack a sweater or a jacket for nights in the mountains or the desert. In Winter, bring long sleeve shirts, sweaters and a scarf, gloves, a warm coat, and a raincoat and an umbrella.

Some religious sites require long pants for men and clothing that covers the shoulders and knees for women.

Tips - On the go

BAGGAGE REGULATIONS AND SOME RECOMMENDATIONS

- Make sure you check the baggage allowance on your international / internal flights.
- We recommend to travel light especially when there is internal flight involved in the program due to baggage weight limitation.
- We suggest that you carry one set of clothes along with your daily utility items and other accessories in your hand baggage. This is just a precautionary measure in case your baggage is misplaced.
- We advice that you travel as light as possible, since portage is not included in your holiday price and carrying heavy luggage would be inconvenient. Take bags with wheels and sturdy handles, as they are more convenient and easy to pull.
- Please note that airlines do not permit items like loose batteries, razor blades, nail cutter, scissors, knives, gels any form of liquid, cigarette lighter in your hand baggage. If required carry such items in your check –in bag.
- Please ensure that you do not place any valuables in your check – in bag. Carry foreign currency / travel documents / jewellery / insurance in your hand bag.

COACH

- Since travelling distances are comparatively long, we have carefully chosen air conditioned luxurious coaches for your convenience luxurious coaches for your convenience and comfort. It is very important to maintain a pleasant environment on board the coach and keep it clean.
- Drinking, Smoking and eating is not allowed in the coach.

MEALS

- You have a choice of local and international cuisine meals. The menus, however are fixed in advance and a la carte is also possible upon request.

- Most lunches and dinner are unlimited buffets, but it is requested that you do not waste food.

- If there is any early morning departure to the airport a box breakfast may be provided.

- Some cities you may be served local meals.

CLIMATE

- The climate is as varied as its countries, but it is mostly temperate.

- Frequent changes of weather make forecasting difficult. To be on the safe side, be sure to bring a sweater and an umbrella with you.

HOTELS & ROOMS

- Most hotels offer the facility of complimentary safe deposit lockers (few hotels charge a refundable deposit. we advice that you keep all your valuable like money, passport, tickets and jewellery in the locker, in case you are staying for more than one day at the hotel.

- Please make sure that no damages are done to your hotel room during the stay, as the same would be charged to you directly by the hotel.

- Hotel rooms may have facilities like mini bar, pay television channels, telephones, etc. please note that these facilities are not complimentary and will be charged as per actual usage.

- Most of the hotels do not have a tea/ coffee kettle in the rooms.

- Please note that we will try our best to provide you with adjacent rooms asked by you at the time of booking, but the same will be subject to availability at the time of check –in. It is also difficult to provide interconnecting rooms, however the tour manager and the hotel will try their best to ensure that you are provided with adjacent rooms wherever possible.

- The standard check in time at hotels is after 14:00 HRS and standard check –out time is 10:00 HRS.

TIME MANAGEMENT

- It's very important to be on time and punctual on your holiday, since your itinerary has been designed and planned to offer you the most on your holiday.
- Every sightseeing trip where you get off has an allotted time, please make sure you remain with the group return at the allotted time. Any delay would actually deprive the entire group of their sightseeing time.

ON ARRIVAL

- ALL passengers will be met by our tour manager / local representative outside the arrival hall at the airport.
- All joining direct passengers will have to reach the respective hotel/ airport, on their own and check in.
